

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Milton A. Hollifield, Jr. – Executive Director-Treasurer

MEDIA CREDENTIAL POLICY FOR ANNUAL SESSION
MONDAY, NOV. 9 – WEDNESDAY, NOV. 11

Print, online and broadcast news media are invited to attend the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina Annual Session. Members of the press are required to check in upon arrival and receive a press badge. All media representatives should present valid media identification/credentials issued by a recognized news organization in order to receive a press badge for access to the 2009 BSCNC Annual Session. Press badges may be picked up at the BSCNC Press Room located in the Koury Convention Center. Please follow signs located in the registration area.

- Media representatives who are granted credentials by BSCNC Communications are required to have a press badge visible at all times during the annual session.
- Photography and video are allowed during the annual session. However, photography and video from the stage is prohibited. A mult-box for audio feeds will be set up in front of the house control area in the general session room.
- Journalists may interview messengers to the annual session, provided these interviews do not take place from the floor of the general session.
- Members of the press are not allowed on stage or backstage.
- BSCNC Communications will arrange all interviews with BSCNC officers, staff or stage presenters/speakers. Please make the BSCNC Communications staff aware of any interview requests upon arrival to the annual session.
